Introduction

ChefMLK School of Cooking was established by Chef Martin Kobald as a medium to share his passion for Food and the Culinary Industry with Trainee Chefs and Cooks.

ChefMLK School of Cooking is based in Glen Marais, Kempton Park and accessible by both public and private transport.

ChefMLK School of Cooking is a private Training Provider and do not offer subsidized training or bursaries. Our focus is on quality, hands-on training with small groups (maximum 12) of Trainees who receive personal attention from our competent lecturers. Trainees cook an extensive range of recipes individually in every course.

The various courses offered by a multitude of training providers can be confusing. What is key is to not only compare prices, but to ask if you are getting value for your money.

What qualifications do ChefMLK School of Cooking offer?

Three Year Full Time Occupational Certificate: Chef

Many employers require job applicants to have Grade 12 and we highly recommend our applicants to have Grade 12 or National Senior Certificate, a Senior National Certificate or a National Certificate (Vocational) with Mathematics and English.

The Occupational Certificate: Chef has been developed under supervision of the Quality Council for Trades and Occupations (QCTO).

ChefMLK School of Cooking offer Trainee Chefs the opportunity to register for a three-year course which will meet the qualification requirements of the QCTO. Included is the Highfield Qualifications Level 2 Diploma for Professional Cooks and Level 3 Diploma for Professional Chefs. (Optional additions: Level 3 Diploma in Patisserie, Confectionary and Bakery; Level 4 Diploma for Professional Chefs in Supervision (RQF). Cost available on request). The Highfield qualifications sits on the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) in Britain.

(Note: A National Occupational Trade Test will have to be passed before formally qualifying as a Chef.)

The qualification requires both academic and practical work experience modules to be completed in the three years of study. This means that a Trainee Chef will spend a considerable time actively gaining practical work experience in reputable establishments when not attending lectures at ChefMLK School of Cooking. These placement periods are arranged and monitored by ChefMLK School of Cooking lecturers with a network of professional partners.

Eighteen Month Full Time Occupational Certificate: Cook

ChefMLK School of Cooking offer Trainee Chefs the opportunity to register for an eighteen month course which will meet the qualification requirements of the QCTO. Included is the Highfield Qualifications Level 2 Diploma for Professional Cooks. The Highfield qualifications sits on the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) in Britain.

(Note: A National Occupational Trade Test will have to be passed before formally qualifying as a Cook.)

Further information about this course is available upon request.*

Eleven Week Full Time Highfield Kitchen Assistant Certificate

Nine month Full Time Highfield Professional Cook Diploma

Further information about these courses are available upon request.*

How are our full-time courses presented?

School-based training

Trainees attend lectures and practical classes with demonstrations done by lecturers who cook with the Trainees. Assessments are conducted throughout courses.

Classes are presented daily from Monday through to Friday (except on Public Holidays) from 09h00 until 16h00. Class times may vary dependent on scheduled activities.

Trainees participate in applying the principles of Kitchen Management at the School. This includes the daily maintenance of a professional and clean School environment, ranging across all kitchens, lecture rooms, storerooms, fridges and freezers as well as public areas.

Practical Industry Placement and monitoring (for Occupational Trade Qualifications only)

ChefMLK School of Cooking lecturers arrange industry placements for Trainees to meet the practical work requirements as specified in the qualifications. Lecturers meet monthly with the Trainees to monitor logbooks and assist with any queries. These visits ensure continued educational endeavour by the Trainees and accessibility to ChefMLK School of Cooking. When in Placement, Trainees will be subject to the rules of the establishments and will work shifts as allocated, including evenings, week-ends and Public Holidays.

ChefMLK Events and Functions

Trainees are at times required to participate in function preparation, set-up, hosting and break-down. This offers the Trainee the opportunity to gain hands-on experience under the guidance of ChefMLK Chefs and serves as additional evidence for portfolio purposes.

Curriculum Overview

ChefMLK School of Cooking uses a range of suitable study guides, materials, visual aids and excursions to address the Knowledge, Practical and Workplace requirements as set out by both the QCTO as well as the Highfield Qualifications curricula.

 Detailed curriculum information and schedules will be available upon further enquiry.*

School Governance

All Trainees are expected to comply with School Code of Conduct requirements, which include disciplinary codes, liability indemnification, Health and Safety procedures, etc.

 Information in this regard will be available upon further enquiry.*
